Death of Charles Galusha

Morning Appeal, July 22, 1898

The Flag of the Capitol was at half mast yesterday because of the news from San Francisco that Adjutant General Galusha had died at the German Hospital.

General Galusha was born in Kirkland Oneida county, New York on April 18, 1845 and was therefore 53 years and 3 months of age at the time of his demise. He was a member of Carson Lodge No. 1 F & A. M., and of Custer Post, G. A. R.

He was for many years connected with the Land Office in this city. Under the present administration of State affairs, he was appointed Adjutant General, in which position he has served faithfully and well.

For some time he has been ill and it was evident to himself as well as his many friends that the end was not far distant.

His daughter, Mrs. D. M. Jennison, will arrive in Carson this morning with the remains when the funeral arrangements will be made. It will, however, in all likelihood take place under the auspices of Carson Lodge, F. & A. M., and will be a military funeral.

Burial of General Galusna

Morning Appeal, July 24, 1898

Adjutant C. H. General Galusha was buried by Carson Lodge, No. 1, F. & A. M. on Sunday. The services were opened by Worshipful Master Rulison at 1 o'clock. The coffin was draped with the American Flag and covered with floral emblems. The Episcopal choir sang "I Need Thee Every Hour," "Abide with Me" and the burial anthem.

Chaplain J. B. Eddy delivered a most appropriate and eloquent address, taking for his text, "From labor to refreshment," and the funeral cortege was then formed by Marshall P. B. Ellis and C. N. Noteware.

The procession formed with 400 infantry in line, the Reno and Carson bands, the Governor and staff, members of the G. A. R., the Masonic fraternity and members of the Eastern Star.

The Masonic ceremony at the graveyard was very impressive. Chaplain Eddy read the ritual of the order and Judge Hawley delivered a very effective address. A detail of eight men then fired three volleys of musketry over the grave, and the ceremonies were completed.

It was one of the largest funerals ever witnessed in Carson.

The pall bearers were, M. A. Murphy, P. A. Doyle, Trenmor Coffin, Joseph Platt, Chas. Springmeyer, Charles Fulstone, James P. Woodbury and George Gilson, accompanied by a detail of eight privates from the Battalion of guards.
