RE: Ms. Kil Ye Chew; aka, Katie's Bar

Dear Mr. Benton:

It was a pleasure speaking with you today regarding the above named client. Per my understanding and your answers, Ms. Chew is facing two (2) dynamics, which 1 is a misdemeanor criminal charge and 2 the Civil Liqueur License Hearing. In reference to the latter, I am respectfully requesting that you reschedule Ms. Chew's hearing for April 17, 2008, in the a.m., and I assure you, I will be there front and center to represent Ms. Chew's interest. Also, if it is not too much of a burden, would you please acquire a copy of the discovery reflective of Law Enforcement's charge to misdemeanor obstructing and resisting and the arrest of my client on the day of the event. You can see by the enclosed document, I am pursuing this discovery, I just do not want to get into a situation where I do not have it prior to our hearing. Chances are great that the criminal misdemeanor trial will be set well after our case is completed.

Thank you for your professionalism in this case. If you have any comments or questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.

I remain,

Richard A. Molezzo, Esq.
