

PROCLAMATION

In Appreciation of John Simms

WHEREAS, John began his career with the Carson City Juvenile Probation Department on June 18, 1984 as a Youth Counselor in the Detention Center ; and

WHEREAS, John was promoted to Senior Youth Counselor in 1989 where he had his first experience with supervising staff. In 1991, he was promoted to Juvenile Probation Officer where he worked diligently with youths and families. In 1997, he was promoted to manage the Juvenile Detention Center and in August of 2007, John was appointed as the Chief Juvenile Probation Officer for the First Judicial District; and

WHEREAS, John's 29 years of hard work and dedication have been outstanding. He has worked tirelessly on various committees and testified at numerous legislative sessions. John has been an advocate for Carson City and has an enduring commitment to improving and enhancing Juvenile Justice; and

WHEREAS, John will be missed by all those who have had the pleasure of working with him in Carson City and statewide.

NOW THEREFORE, I, Robert L. Crowell, Mayor of Carson City, Nevada on behalf of the Board of Supervisors, do hereby extend this proclamation and our sincerest appreciation to John Simms for his incredible service to Carson City and wish him well in his retirement.

Dated this 20th day of June 2013.

Robert L. Crowell, Mayor