Carson City Daily Appeal Thursday, December 19, 1907

Samuel C. Burke and old and well-known resident of this city was found dead in his home in the southern part of the city this morning. Death had probably resulted during the night.

The dead man was found by Joe Haffner, a friend of the deceased who had not seen him for several days and went to his cabin to see if he was ill.

The coroner was notified and a jury as summoned. After an examination of the body and the facts surround the case, a verdict of death from natural causes was rendered.

Mr. Burke was a native of the state of New York and was 68 years of age at the time of his death. He was a veteran of the civil war having served in Company C, 25th Regular Michigan Volunteers. He was injured during the war and has been receiving a pension from the government for many years.

He was a resident of this city for many years and was known to everyone here. A wife, Mrs. Jennie Burke and two daughters, Mrs. E. O. Patterson of this city and Mrs. Dave Richards of Empire, several step children, a brother and two nieces in the eastern states survive him.

No funeral arrangements have yet been made.
