Death of a G. A. R. Veteran

The Daily Territorial Enterprise, October 28, 1904

H. W. Lockerman (colored), an old resident of Silver City, died there yesterday morning from cancer of the jaw. He returned from San Francisco recently, where he underwent an operation, but the disease was too far advanced to obtain any relief. He was a barber by occupation, and was always in line with the G. A. R. veterans on Memorial Day. He is survived by a sister, who was with him when he died. He was a native of Ohio, aged 64 years. Undertaker Kuhn prepared the body for burial.
