1. The following question was received on April 30, 2015.

Q: AISC "Major Bridge":

Our company is AISC "Simple Bridge" certified. I am requesting to be an approved bridge supplier. Based on the description of the two different certifications it would not effect a pedestrian bridge design as it referrers more to a Vehicle Bridge.

A: Yes, AISC "Simple Bridge" certified manufacturers are allowed to place bids for the bridge purchase.

2. Replace Section 7.2 of the Technical Specifications with the following:
