MEMORANDUM

Historic Resource Commission meeting of March 12, 2015

TO: Historic Resource Commission Item F-3

FROM: Susan Dorr Pansky, Planning Manager

DATE: March 2, 2015

SUBJECT: HRC-15-016 Proclamation for Historic Preservation and Archaeological Awareness Month in May 2015

Recommended Motion: “I move to recommend that the Board of Supervisors proclaim the month of May as Historic Preservation and Archaeological Awareness Month.”

Discussion:

Since the National Trust for Historic Preservation created Preservation Week in 1971 to spotlight grassroots preservation efforts in America, it has grown into an annual celebration observed by small towns and big cities with events ranging from architectural and historic tours and award ceremonies, to fundraising events, educational programs, and heritage travel opportunities. Due to its overwhelming popularity, in 2005, the National Trust for Historic Preservation extended the celebration to the entire month of May and declared it Preservation Month to provide an even longer opportunity to celebrate the diverse and unique heritage of our country's cities and states, and enable more Americans to become involved in the growing preservation movement.

Nevada has expanded the National Trust's declaration of May as National Preservation Month to include the recognition of the importance of archaeological resources. Through the Nevada State Historic Preservation Office, May has been declared as Historic Preservation and Archaeological Awareness Month.

By declaring May as Historic Preservation and Archaeological Awareness Month, communities from coast to coast like Carson City, which are filled with historic treasures, will be celebrating—and May's the month to honor them. The National Trust for Historic Preservation has encouraged communities to reach out to our growing audience of neighbors, tourists, students and preservationists by promoting historic places in our community, and encourage newcomers to learn more about Carson City's local preservation efforts.

Attached is the draft proclamation for recommendation to the Board of Supervisors. If you have questions regarding this item, please contact Susan Dorr Pansky at 283-7076 or spansky@carson.org.
